Seit Frühjahr 2025 reist Borussia Dortmund im neuen „Mannschaftsairbus“ von Eurowings zu ihren Auswärtsspielen. Schon die erste Version, die 2016 Premiere feierte und ebenfalls bei Herpa erschienen ist, sorgte für große Aufmerksamkeit. Der komplett in Schwarz-Gelb getauchte BVB-Airbus war ein Highlight an den Flughäfen in ganz Europa. Auffällig bei dem jüngsten Design ist der in Mattlack gehaltene Schriftzug „BVB09“, der sich über den gesamten Rumpf erstreckt. Mit dieser Neuheit können Sie nun Ihre Sammlung um ein weiteres Highlight in Schwarz-Gelb bereichern.

Since spring 2025, the German soccer team of Borussia Dortmund has been traveling to its away games in the new Eurowings “Mannschaftsairbus” (“Team Airbus”). The first version, which premiered in 2016 and was also released by Herpa, attracted a great deal of attention. The BVB Airbus, completely bathed in black and yellow, was a highlight at airports throughout Europe. A striking feature of the latest livery is the “BVB09” lettering in matt paint, which extends over the entire length of the fuselage. With this new release, you can enrich your collection with yet another highlight in black and yellow.

Pan Am Boeing 757-200 "Tracing the Transatlantic" – TF-FIC "Yankee Clipper II" 39,95 €

Am 28. Juni 1939 startete Pan American World Airways ihre ersten kommerziellen Passagierflüge über den Atlantik. Auf der so genannten Südroute flog sie von New York City aus nach Marseille, mit Zwischenstopps auf den Bermudas, den Azoren und in Lissabon. Am 8. Juli wurde die Nordroute eingeweiht, die von New York über Neufundland in Kanada und Foynes in Irland nach London führte. Inspiriert vom Pioniergeist der frühen Tage hat Pan Am eine Reise zusammengestellt, die diese ursprünglichen Routen miteinander verbindet. An Bord dieser Boeing 757 können die Reisenden das „Goldene Zeitalter“ noch einmal erleben. Ausgestattet mit lediglich 50 modernen Liegesitzen, kommen die Teilnehmer dieser besonderen Reise in den Genuss eines gehobenen Caterings und einer offenen Bar auf allen Flugstrecken.

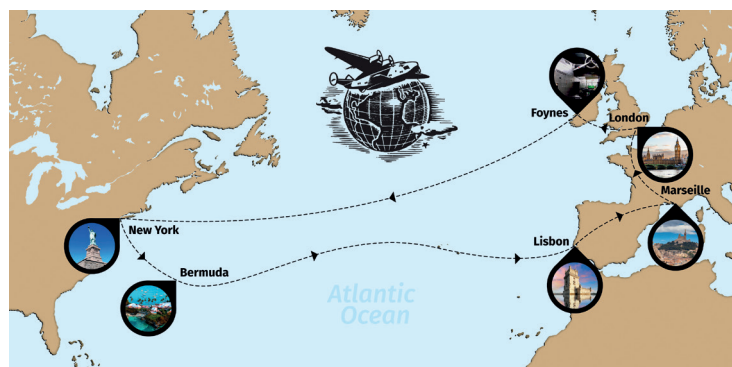

On June 28, 1939, Pan American World Airways introduced its first commercial passenger flights across the Atlantic Ocean. Following what became known as the Southern Route, it flew from New York City with stops in Bermuda, the Azores, Lisbon, Portugal, and Marseille, France. By July 8, the Northern Route was inaugurated, from New York to London via Newfoundland, Canada and Foynes, Ireland. Inspired by the pioneering spirit from the early days, Pan Am has created an itinerary combining these original routes. Travelers can relive the "Golden Age" on board this Boeing 757 aircraft. Equipped with only 50 modern lie-flat seats, participants on this special voyage will enjoy upscale catering and an open bar on all flight legs.
